

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be recommended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

THE BATTLE NOW ON

Republicans Scheming to Capture the Next Member of the Legislature.

BY FUSION WITH THE DEMOCRATS

No Names Have Yet Been Mentioned in this Connection—Senator Daniel Sends Congratulations and Words of Good Cheer to the Bryan and Sewall Free Silver Club.

That portion of the long suffering public which fondly hoped that with the election of a President of the United States the political saviors and would-be saviors of the nation and the nation's honor were going to ring down the curtain for another four years, will find themselves badly mistaken.

As a matter of fact the show appears to have just begun. All over the country there is a general crystallizing and amalgamation of forces and a planning for future maneuvers. Even so small a corner of the earth as Norfolk city has caught the fever, and already the leaders of the several parties here are looking forward with some interest to the speculative interest to fight for the next member of the Legislature from this burg.

In the Republican camps, particularly, there is unusual activity of mind along this line, and all sorts of combinations are being schemed for by which a Republican may obtain the coveted seat. To this end they are looking for local fusion with the gold Democrats. The latter are being asked to vote—the Republicans have promised to do the rest. Just how far these plans may carry remains to be seen, but it is noticed that up to the present very little terror has been struck to Democratic hearts.

ON THE OTHER SIDE.
On the other side there has been as yet very little talk, and comparatively little planning. It is believed that when the time comes for the Democrats to nominate a man, a citizen will be put up, representative not only of the principals of Democracy, but of the best interests of all classes, and no such thing as defeat is looked for.

LET THEM STICK TOGETHER.
The following is being extensively circulated:

Lynchburg, Va., Nov. 17th, 1896.
To the Silver Clubs of Virginia:
Our great leader, Wm. Jennings Bryan, said in his ringing address after defeat:

"In the face of an enemy rejoicing in victory let the roll be called for the next engagement and urge all friends of bimetalism to renew their allegiance to the cause. Let each advocate of bimetalism continue the work; let all silver clubs retain their organization and hold regular meetings and circulate literature."

Echoing his sentiments, I invoke your attention to them and would urge action in harmony with them.

While we all regret our temporary defeat, there is still no cause for dismay.

PETER J. OTEY.
Member National Democratic Committee for Virginia.

FINISHED AT LAST.
The Commissioners of Election met yesterday and completed their extended canvass of the vote of Norfolk city in the recent election. Some important changes were made in the count.

Dr. C. L. Charters, president of the Bryan and Sewall Free Silver Club of this city, has received the following communication from Senator Daniel:

Lynchburg, Va., Nov. 6, 1896.
C. L. Charters, Esq., Norfolk, Va.:
Dear Sir:—I beg leave to tender my congratulations upon the election of our candidate in your district, and my compliments upon your services as chief of the Bryan and Sewall Club. We have lost the fight, but our cause was a just one and will yet be vindicated. I am, with great respect,
Very truly yours,
JOHN W. DANIEL.

M. & M. T. Co's Men Ship.
Harlan, Hollingsworth & Co., shipbuilders, Wilmington, Del., have been awarded the contract, by the Merchants' and Miners' Transportation Company, for a new passenger steamship.

The vessel will be a duplicate of the steamship Howard, constructed by the same firm for the same company last year. It will be completed within one year's time and is to cost $330,000 and will have a speed of fifteen knots an hour. It will be built of steel throughout and will be 276 feet between perpendiculars, 203 feet over all on deck; depth, 24 feet; molded beam, 42 feet, and will have 6 feet 6 inches sheer forward.

The name of the new vessel has not yet been fixed upon, the first object being to meet the growing requirements of this company's trade by the construction of another ship.

Off to the Conference.
The Methodist ministers leave this morning with the lay delegates from the Norfolk District for Lynchburg to attend the Virginia Conference. Of course all the preachers will go. The lay delegates are Messrs. W. W. Vear, A. W. Grandy and John H. Shipp, of Norfolk, and Mr. A. E. Kellam, of Princess Anne.

A Child's First Lesson.
Obedience should be a child's first lesson. If you send your child to the grocery for Fox Crackers, see that your orders are obeyed and no amount of smooth talk on the part of the dealer should swerve the little one from the path of obedience.

Sowing Crackers Broadcast.

Mr. A. W. Helt, representing the Fox Bakery, of Port Wayne, Ind., is in the city. He will distribute samples of Fox famous four X butter crackers throughout this and neighboring cities, sowing seed, as it were, for a growing business, for they say that once tasted Fox Crackers are always afterwards wanted.

Fox Crackers and other products will be introduced to all jobbers here by Messrs. Balyeat & Wright, manufacturers' agents, 20 Roanoke dock, who will see also that any person who should fail to get samples of the "kind of cracker that melts in the mouth" shall receive them on request by mail or personally.

Now, mark this, business men: It is an object lesson. Having, it seems certain, great merit, the Fox brand is unknown in this section. Experienced in conquering a new territory the manufacturer makes a small advertising contract with The Virginian. In three days every dealer of prominence in this section will know the Fox brand. In a month the majority of the intelligent consumers will ask for it. All that a man has to do nowadays is to make an excellent article and advertise it in leading newspapers. He will thus build in a month the business that it required years to build in the old days. This is especially true of things that people use daily. The wisdom of the Fox is proverbial. If further proof is required see the Fox advertisements in The Virginian.

The Entertainment Tomorrow.

The pleasant duty of caring for the widow, if such a solemn subject can be thus lightly alluded to, will be performed by those who patronize the entertainment of the Daughters of the Confederacy at the hall of the Pickett-Buchanan Camp, Confederate Veterans, on Main street, to-morrow evening from 5 to 11 o'clock, to which the public is cordially invited. Refreshments will be served at extremely reasonable prices. There will be music, special for the party, and the latter will not leave until the lights go out if the fair is as pleasant as was the last one given under the auspices of the Daughters of the Confederacy, and it is likely to be equally so.

It was never more pleasantly disguised, though never more imperative. The Daughters of the Confederacy have undertaken a great work; it is a trilling contribution that they expect to have upon the public, and it will no doubt be cheerfully paid. The Virginian suggests that those unable to attend the entertainment should send a substitute.

A SICK BENEFIT.

A Useful Auxiliary Organization Formed by Norfolk Printers.
Norfolk Typographical Union, No. 22, met Sunday and formed an auxiliary for the purpose of providing a sick benefit fund for its members as well as other connected with the craft directly. The following permanent organization was elected: President, R. J. Carley; Vice President, L. L. Rolfe; Secretary, G. G. Williams; Treasurer, C. J. Kizer. The new organization starts with a large membership, and an assured prospect of success. It is one that has long been needed here by the printers, who are unanimously taking advantage of it.

A Pleasant Entertainment.

A pleasant entertainment is promised by the Young People's Society of the Second Presbyterian Church this evening at 8 o'clock. The entertainment will be held in the Sunday-school room, which is approached from 11th street. The programme presents a pleasing variety, and after its rendition some of their own delightful home made candy will be sold by the young ladies of the society.

Serious Illness.
Mrs. Sarah A. Meagher, wife of the late General Francis Thos. Meagher, is very ill at the Hospital St. Vincent's de Paul. She is under the skillful attendance of two of our best known medical men, whose hopes are for her speedy recovery, in which wish her host of friends join.

INTERESTING REPORT

Of the President of the Board of Managers of the Boys' Home.

OUTLINE OF GOOD WORK ACCOMPLISHED

Since Its Organization 112 Boys Have Been Admitted and There Are Thirty-Three in the Home Now—How the Institution Is Supported—Its System and Government.

The President of the Board of Managers of the Turney Home for Boys has rendered the following very interesting report:

One of the greatest needs of our city prior to 1886 was a Boys' Home, to gather in and care for the neglected waifs living on the streets, acquiring habits of indolence and vices which would make them a curse instead of a blessing to our city.

This question had been often discussed, but no one felt willing to start such an institution without funds, when all the charities of the city needed more help. At this time God put it into the heart of Mrs. Mary A. Timberlake, an earnest Christian woman of great energy and strong faith to establish a home. She hired a house, became responsible for the rent, secured the best help she could find to work in the house under her supervision, trusting to Providence to guide and open the way for better things. A band of faithful Christian women (who only waited for a leader) and a generous public came to her help. This band, beginning improved each year, and soon became a comfortable pleasant home for the inmates. This home received orphans, also children of sick, indigent, or worthless parents, and boards children of men who have no one to care for their boys; also of women who have to leave home for work at a moderate price. The object of this society is to shelter and protect the destitute and homeless; to furnish them with food and lodging; to impart moral and religious instruction; to teach them to work, and in every way possible to raise them from a life of vagrancy and penury to habits of industry, sobriety and learning. This institution was first called "The Boys' Home." It was changed to "The Turney Home for Boys," as Mr. Peter Turney, a generous citizen, who was greatly interested in the Home, purchased in 1891 a handsome, comfortable house, costing $12,000, and donated it to the institution on certain conditions. He paid $10,000 of this amount. A debt remains on the property, which we hope will soon be liquidated.

This institution is conducted by a board of thirty lady managers, who have control of the house, children, &c. Officers elected annually from this board are three Vice Presidents, Treasurer, Recording Secretary, and Corresponding Secretary. Committees are a house committee, hospital committee, purchasing committee, and collecting committee, educational committee, and entertainment committee; also an advisory board of eleven gentlemen, who have charge of the monetary affairs of the house, and a general supervision of the work. The officers elected from this board are a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer.

Since the organization of the home 112 boys have been admitted; twenty-three are in the home now. The home is sustained by a monthly allowance from the city, by subscriptions and donations of money, food, clothing, household goods, &c., from a generous public. Occasionally we are forced to have an excursion or an entertainment to meet expenses.

Thanking the community for their generous aid in the past, we hope they will continue to sustain the Home with liberal hands and loving hearts, especially at this time, as we are making an effort to pay off the debt still remaining on the Home.

CONDEMNED MAN VIOLENT.

Robt. Downing Says He Will be Shot Before He Will Hang.
William Downing, who will be hanged on December 4th for the murder of Emma Lane, is growing violent. The prisoner has made threats against the lives of his death watch and has, therefore, been deprived of his accustomed daily walks in the corridor of his prison.

He has also told Sheriff Lewler that he will be shot before he is hanged. On two occasions—Sunday and yesterday—he has made an attempt to melt the lock to his cell door. He tore up the wooden covering to the stone floor in his cell, and built a fire with it twice. Both times the hose had to be used to extinguish the flames. It is, it seems, his idea to melt the lock off the cell door if he can. Sheriff Lawler secured a pair of irons yesterday morning to be placed upon the prisoner, but when they were tested by a locksmith he found them to be insecure. The Sheriff will have the State authorities in Richmond furnish him leg irons for Downing.

Charles Williams, the other negro who is sentenced to be hanged with Downing—for the murder of George Bess, colored—is very quiet and is not causing the jailers any trouble at all.

CHITTENDEN'S STOCK

Sacrificing Dry Goods, Dress Goods, Trimmings, Notions, Etc.

I hereby give notice that I have bought the Chittenden stock of dry goods in the store No. 98 Main street, new number 230, for one-third its cost. It is a new and complete stock, for Chittenden has been open out a few weeks. I bought it on speculation and want my money back immediately. I have to remove the stock from the store within a month, and I have therefore to sacrifice it, which I will do without delay. Beginning at once it will be sold without regard to its market value. There will be no effort made to get cost for the goods. They will be sold from the start at sacrificing prices. Great bargains may be expected by buyers who come quickly.

AMUSEMENTS.

"MISS PHILADELPHIA."—The sale of reserved seats for this big and costly production will begin to-morrow morning. The engagement is for two nights and Saturday matinee—next Friday and Saturday, the 12th and 13th. The following are the prices: Evening, 25c, 50c, $1.00 and $1.50; matinee, 25c, 50c, 75c, and $1.00.

"CARMEN."—Rosabel Morrison, who has made such a hit as "Carmen" is the daughter of Lewis Morrison, the famous Mephisto, and whose production of "Faust" is familiar to theatre-goers all over the country. Miss Morrison bids fair to become as popular as her father, whose genius she has unquestionably inherited. Miss Morrison herself is well known through her successful characterization of Marguerite in "Faust," in which part she starred for several years. The rehearsals of "Carmen" were directed by Mr. Morrison and his art is plainly noticeable in many of the scenes.

"THE MOUNTBANK."—Was presented at the Academy of Music last night to a small audience by Emmett Corrigan, who personally pleased his house, but was at the disadvantage of out-classing the remainder of the cast, although Nat. Cantor as Tobie, Miss Lottie Sutton as Julie and Frank Arnold as the villain, were not without qualities commending them to the audience. The rest were weak and also guilty of the crime of being unfamiliar with their parts. Gus Thomas in the rendition of several beautiful ballads, illustrated by a series of delightful stereoscopic views, was as much a favorite as ever, and won great applause. Mr. Corrigan received a curtain call at the end of the third act. "Turned Up" will be presented by the same company to-night, and in it Mr. Corrigan is said to be at his best. Mr. Thomas will also sing between the second and third acts.
